

1929 TIME CAPSULE – CH YANG FU TANG – 1ST BIS RECORD HOLDER

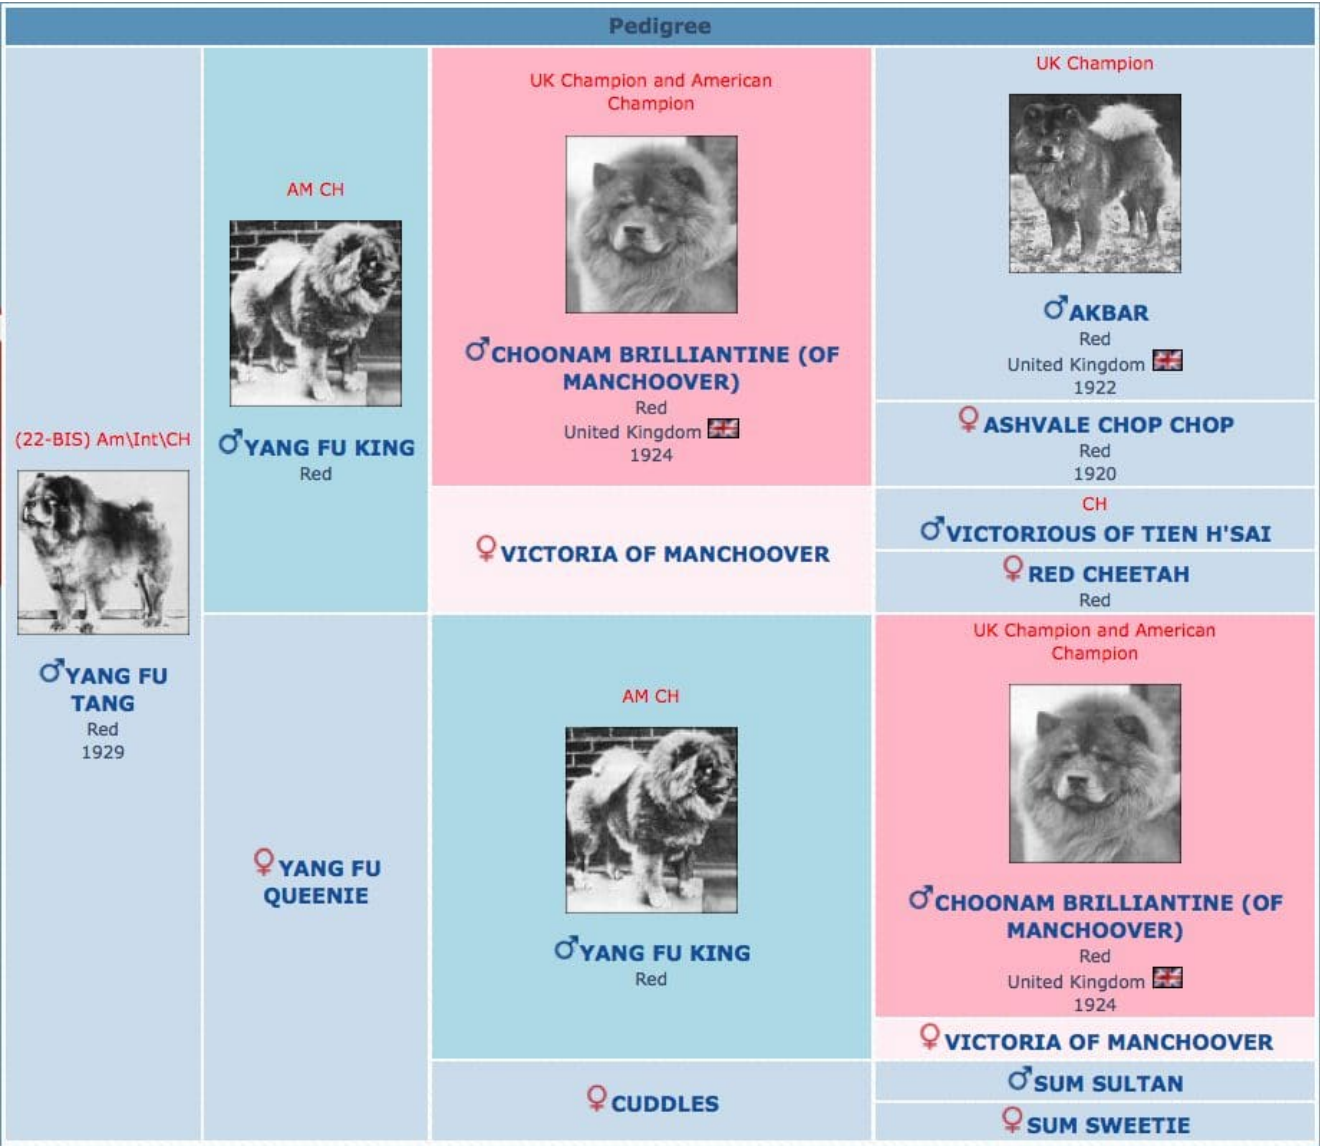

Vintage image from the ©Sandra Miller Collection

CH. YANG FU TANG HISTORICAL INFO

- Name: Ch. Yang Fu Tang
- Red male
- Born October 10, 1929
- Breeder: YANG FU KENNELS of the brothers Arthur and Richard Hoffman- Milwaukee, Wisconsin
- Owned by Louise Seamer
- Sire: Ch. Yang Fu King (Son of Ch. Choonam Brilliantine)
- Dam: Yang Fu Queenie (Grandaughter of Ch. Choonam Brilliantine)
- Yang Fu Tang was produced by combining two of the most sought after bloodlines of the day – Ch. Choonam Brilliantine and Ch. Win Sum Min T'sing.
- He was a charismatic dog who did a lot to help return to the public, a good perception of chow temperament. The breed's reputation had been seriously compromised with the sudden popularity and careless breeding for the pet market. This chow craze was partially sparked by President Coolidge owning chows Blackberry and Tim in the 20's.
- Ch. Yang Fu Tang was the chow breed's first major winner of Best in Show awards with 22 Bests in Show to his credit and held this record until Ah Sid the Dilettante (Buddy) tied the record in 1963, broke in 1964. Buddy's record stood until 1984 until Ch. Wah Hu Redcloud Sugar Daddy retired after 35 Bests
- 1932 he won the Chow Chow Club of America National

Specialty in New York City under judge Mrs Wm Fitzgerald.. The chow entry was 167

- 1931 and 1932 Ch. Yang Fu Tang won Best of Breed at the Westminster Kennel Club show..
- Died July 12, 1936 from heat prostration at the far too young age of 7 , leaving many offspring to carry on his pedigree

CLICK PHOTO TO SEE FULL PEDIGREE AT ZOo INGRUS.NET

Vintage image from the ©Sandra Miller Collection

Above is an extremely rare Dog World cover from June 1934 in my personal collection highlighting Ch. Yang Fu Tang. As well known as this record holding dog was, his photographs are elusive. The cover art was most likely based on the photo below...the only REAL photo I have in my collection of him to date.

CH. YANG FU TANG
1932 CHOW NATIONAL BEST OF BREED

chowtales.com

Ch. Yang Fu Tang, owned by Mrs. L. C. Seamer of Chicago, has characteristic dense coat, massive head, and scowling expression

A very rare photo of Ch. Yang Fu Tang from the early 1930's

This recent photo addition above is an extremely rare glimpse of Ch. Yang Fu Tang at a different angle from the other image

OUTSTANDING CHAMPION OF 1931
CH. YANG FU TANG

Steeped deep in the blood of the BRILLIANTINE STRAIN, this magnificent yearling Chow dog not yet reaching full maturity, gives promise of surpassing the glorious record of his illustrious grandsire, Int. Ch. Choonam Brilliantine.

He began his show career at 7 months at the Wisc. Kennel Club show in 1930 when he went winners and best of breed. At Chicago, Mid States Chow Specialty 1930, he went to best of winners. Thereafter he went on to winners and best of breed at the following shows—Westminster 1931, Benton Harbor 1931, St. Louis 1931, where he also went best non-sporting.

AT THE TWIN CITY KENNEL CLUB SHOW, ST. PAUL, MINN., 1931, HE WAS SHOWN FOR SPECIALS ONLY, GOING BEST OF BREED, BEST NONSPORTING AND BEST IN SHOW.

Ch. Yang Fu Tang combines the short coupled body, massive heavy muzzled head and true Chow expression, which have long been outstanding qualities of the Brilliantine strain.

Now at stud to approved matrons only. Circular upon request.

LOUISE C. SEAMER

Ph. Tower 6890 1510 E. SHORE DRIVE, ST. PAUL, MINN.

1931 DOG NEWS advertisement for Ch. Yang Fu Tang, Past BIS record holder and top sire in America from the ©Sandra Miller Collection

ABOVE IS YET ANOTHER RARE FIND FROM DOG NEWS 1931 COMPLETE WITH DESCRIPTION AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

SEE ENLARGED TEXT BELOW

OUTSTANDING CHAMPION OF 1931

CH. YANG FU TANG

Steeped deep in the blood of the BRILLIANTINE STRAIN, this magnificent yearling Chow dog not yet reaching full maturity, gives promise of surpassing the glorious record of his illustrious grandsire, Int. Ch. Choonam Brilliantine.

He began his show career at 7 months at the Wisc. Kennel Club show in 1930 when he went winners and best of breed. At Chicago, Mid States Chow Specialty 1930, he went to best of winners. Thereafter he went on to winners and best of breed at the following shows—Westminster 1931, Benton Harbor 1931, St. Louis 1931, where he also went best nonsporting.

AT THE TWIN CITY KENNEL CLUB SHOW, ST. PAUL, MINN., 1931, HE WAS SHOWN FOR SPECIALS ONLY, GOING BEST OF BREED, BEST NONSPORTING AND BEST IN SHOW.

Ch. Yang Fu Tang combines the short coupled body, massive heavy muzzled head and true Chow expression, which have long been outstanding qualities of the Brilliantine strain.

Now at stud to approved matrons only. Circular upon request.

LOUISE C. SEAMER

Ph. Tower 6890 1510 E. SHORE DRIVE, ST. PAUL, MINN.

It is noteworthy to read the last paragraph which states this dog is heavy and massive. THIS is what the past standard was talking about when they used the word "massive". Not buffalo massive....they were referring to heavier than most of the northern spitz breeds of the day.

(Tribune photo.)

International Champion Yang Fu Tang, a chow that made an enviable record as a show winner and sire before it died recently. Yang, formerly owned by Mrs. Louise C. Seamer, won best of breed 65 times and best in show more than 22 times before it died. It sired many champions.

chowtales.com

Yang Fu Tang
'34

Original 1934 sketch of Ch. Yang Fu Tang in the ©Sandra Miller Collection

This above gem which I covet is in my personal collection !
CLICK HERE to read more about the Yang Fu Tang sketch

chowtales.com

Dog World

The Complete All-Breed Magazine

20¢

JULY—1931

Outdoor-Show Number

WILL JUDY, EDITOR

Dial in every Sunday, 1:30 P. M., CST.
WGN (720) Chicago, for his talks on dogs

Chow Champion Yang Fu Tang, sensational winner 1931 show circuit. Owned by Louise C. Seamer, 1510 East Shore Drive, St. Paul, Minnesota

NO HOME IS SAFE WITHOUT A DOG

Vintage magazine chow cover from the ©Sandra Miller Collection

ANOTHER STUNNING COVER FEATURING CH. YANG FU TANG FROM 1931

A WONDERFUL COMMENT LEFT BELOW BY THE DAUGHTER OF YANG FU TANG'S BREEDER IN DECEMBER 2015.

"Hello, ch. Yang Fu Tang was my fathers show dog, Yang Fu kennels were my father Arthur Hoffman and my mother's kennels we bred and raised that chow and sold him to louise. I am now 90 yrs old and its fascinating to see some one so interested. Also Mel Thompson was not the artist of Yang Fu Tang's picture that was my uncle Richard Hoffman who drew that picture, just fyi. Any way, nice to come across someone who had such an interest it was a big deal in my family while I was growing up."

Circa early 1930s. I could not believe my eyes when I saw this huge bronze plaque show up at auction. I immediately recognized the chow as the very famous Ch Yang Fu Tang who was a great ambassador for our breed as well with his charming temperament

I have in my records somewhere documentation if this bronze plaque being made for a special award and have seen one other copy of it in photos. Now I need to track that info down for the archives. I'm just so excited I could pop! Eventually I would love to donate this treasure as a perpetual trophy for the national.