IT was a pleasure to visit the well-known Mannersway kennels which house such typical Chows so full of quality and character. All the dogs are in wonderful condition and it was grand to see that old favourite, Paddy of Mannersway, who was looking beautiful. He has the darkest of eyes and is well-known as a sire of winning stock. Then there is Rob Roy, also a home-bred, a grand deep red with the best of heads, grand bone and a very compact body. He too, is siring outstanding puppies. Another dog is Wang Choola, who has the darkest of eyes and a beautiful mouth. He is a grand outcross for bitches of the Choonam or Rochow strains. All these dogs are proved sires.

The bitches are of the best breeding. All are winners and dams of winning puppies. Recently, that grand bitch, Sirrom Annita, was brought out to win at both open and championship shows.

There are always puppies for sale by home-bred bitches such as Princess Foo Fu, Princess Charmaine, Sallie of Mannersway and Lassie of Mannersway, all bitches of great quality.

Sale or stud inquiries should be made to Mrs. Gawthorpe who will give them her personal attention.

JO-SAN Chow Chows

Owner :

Miss J. O. JOSHUA

Telephone. Fin 1861

78, Brentway, Finchley, N.3.

Established 1928

IN these days of commercialism in many breeds, a breeder like Miss Joshua is of great value. She believes, first of all, in studying the health of the breeding stock and keeps only the two or three adults which can be given adequate attention and exercise. Secondly, she will not tolerate in her kennel a bitch, no matter how good looking, which cannot reproduce her kind, and thirdly, the Jo San Chows must be thoroughly sound on all fours. The whole system of exercise and management making for stamina and agility over any kind of country.

Only enough puppies are bred to ensure continuity of the strain and the young stock therefore has an adequate food supply. This means that any surplus stock for sale (and a few should be available at the time of publication) are strong and well reared.

JO-SAN PAU-KI

Jo-San Pau Ki, by Great Westwood Hercules ex Jo-San Otaki, has a very good show record though, in a measure, she has been unlucky in that she has beaten two bitches now champions and five other c.c. winners without gaining a c.c. herself. She has usually been in the first eight of the bitch tote at the ch. and open shows, and has some 75 awards to her credit. In her only litter she bred four bitches, two of which have been shown with success in the London area. One of these is

Jo-San Rapunzel, and the other is Jo-San Ashputtel, who were placed first and third in puppy class at the National Chow Club's show, Rapunzel gaining the specials for best puppy and best puppy bred by exhibitor. By Ch. Li Wu Fah, she is a slow furnisher and will be even better later when she has reared her litter by Ch. Sabu, but even as a puppy she has done really well, always having been placed at ch. and open shows.

Miss Joshua plans her matings to fix the features she most wants in her kennel, so that the winners produced are not chance-breds. One has no doubt that the Jo-San Chows will go on from success to success, for their owner places type and soundness before everything, and pays special attention to temperament and character.

The LI WU Chow Chows Owned by Mrs. SHACKLOCK

England's Piece Yattendon, near Newbury, Berks.

Telephone - Yattendon 289

MRS. SHACKLOCK has been a devotee of the breed since 1922, at first making blues her speciality. Keeping a small nucleus going during the war years, Mrs. Shacklock has now started breeding on a more extensive scale, and though blues are still her favourites her kennels now house some fine reds. Last year that outstanding dog, Li Wu Koo Chih, was bred from Choonam Ming Yong (by Ch. Choonam Fang Yin ex Choonam Li Sang) and Choonam Hu Chung. Purchased by the Comtesse de Changy, he almost immediately won his first certificate in Belgium.

The only stud dog is Li Wu Jai Mee (by Choonam Foo Shang ex Brenda of Barwick), a fine upstanding dog, excelling in head and bone. The puppy shown is by Choonam Chi Mung ex Miriam, a home-bred bitch by Ch. Rochow Adjutant. On her dam's side this bitch is a descendant of Ch. Foo Kwky.

Choonam Ming Yong has now produced four promising dog puppies by Choonam Hu Chung. They were born in October.

I must mention that wonderful dog, Drummer Boy, a son of Ch. Rochow Dragon out of Long Acre Dawn. Now in his fourteenth year, he is still hale and hearty.

DOGS AT STUD : PUPPIES USUALLY FOR SALE

THE Padua kennel has been well represented at most of the important shows. This year, Ransom of Padua, one of the last two sons of Ch. Rochow Adjutant, is now in his eleventh year, but took the reserve c.c. at Peterborough. His children are fast becoming famous: Ch. Una So Sweet (bred by Mrs. Brind) was the first post-war ch. bitch of the breed. His youngest son, Padua's Anton of Kenway, bred by Mr. J. Blake, took the c.c. at Leicester under Mr. A. O. Grindey at the early age of 13 months; he took his second c.c. at Silsden under Miss A. Brackenbury, and was reserve c.c. at Shepherds Bush N.C.C. show, this after being best of breed at Walsall open show, and best in show at the National Chow Club's show under two ch. show judges. Columba of Padua, best of breed at Wimbledon open show and always well to the fore at ch. shows, is three years old. By Ransom ex Sophie of Padua (by Commandant of T'sun Choo), he is half-brother to the reserve c.c. winner at Cardiff, Anselm of Padua. His stud fee is eight guineas.

All bitches are winners: Elizabeth of Padua, now 7 years old, is by Ransom ex Choonam Ta Chu (by Ch. Choonam Hung Kwong); Victoria of Padua, by Ransom ex Wendy Sen Yen (a pre-war reserve c.c. winner) is 4 years old. She is a first prize winner at ch. shows and was best in show at the British Chow Club show in June, and best bitch at the National Chow Chow Club open show. Ruby of Padua, by Ch. Choonam Ho Tung ex Elizabeth, is two years old and will be shown in London shortly.

Young stock includes: Black Susan of Padua, by Champion Sabu ex Victoria; Havmora's Carmen of Padua, by Choonam Fang Weng ex a grand-daughter of Ransom Havmora's Gloria; Padua's Dora of Mannersway, by Rob Roy of Mannersway (litter brother to Red Queen of Padua) ex Sirrom Kwei Ann, is a grand-daughter of Ch. Choonam Mong Yen. Red Queen of Padua, by Ransom ex Pamela of Padua, is the house pet. She is deep self red, and many consider her a "little gem." The most recent addition is Alissa of Jorumoto, by Sylcote Wong Tal ex Golden Empress; she is a grand-daughter of Rupert of Padua.

Puppies from the above bitches may be available shortly. Puppies from Alissa and Carmen now for sale.

PADUA'S ANTON OF KENWAY

ADEL CHOWS

Owner: Miss E. M. BUCKLEY,
Waterloo Hill, Stratford-on-Avon

Telephone:
Stratford-on-Avon
2711

FEW kennels of Chows to-day are so splendidly laid out and equipped as those at Waterloo Hill, but owing to the restriction of breeding operations and the almost total suspension of show activities during the war period, the Adel kennel is only now just getting into its stride again.

The kennel is extensive in character, and houses reds and blacks, as well as the rarer blues, of both sexes, and includes a fine example of the Smooth variety of the breed; so it can be readily understood that it is quite impossible to do justice here to each inmate individually.

The Adel string has been highly successful at all breed, open and championship shows attended this year, and Miss Buckley's services as a judge have been in constant demand.

Black Shoh-Dee of Adel looks like emulating his sire, Minos of Adel (black), as a stud force. Minos' stock is doing well all over the country.

Two Puppies, BLACK SAI-YING OF ADEL and SHEN T'SU OF ADEL (both by Black Shoh-Dee of Adel ex Sultana of Adel).

Black Shoh-Dee is himself a litter-brother of Miss Buckley's reserve c.c. winner, Red Jade of Adel, both being grandchildren of Ch. You Si, Ch. Li Wu Fah, Ch. Peach of Silverway, and the pre-war ch. show winner, Bee Zee of Adel (litter-sister of an old favourite, Black Bill of Adel). Excellently bred though he is, he has something more than pedigree to recommend him as a sire, and not least worthy of mention here are his strong, masculine head, short cobby body, massive bone, and the all-too-rare low double hocks.

Lee Wong of Adel, by Ch. Choonam Mong Yen out of a daughter of Yang-kie Kublai Khan, has close relationship to Miss Peck's old Ch. Akbar line, as well as to Miss Buckley's old champion, Ch. Choonam Mei Su Tang—still queening it as a devoted and beloved house-pet.

Miss Buckley has courageously attempted to preserve some of the older Chow "lines," and amongst her stud dogs are descendants of two lines all but extinct to-day—viz., the "Aw" line, founded by the imported black, Ah Wang, represented by the excellently coloured blue, Blue-Ti of Adel; and of the equally rare one to-day, the "Cs" line, founded by the imported dog, Cymro, which gave us Ch. Red Craze, Ch. Red Shylock, Ch. Sinbad, and a host of other great Chows in the past, and represented in the Adel kennel by the red, Petroushka of Adel.

The dogs are at stud to approved bitches, and by appointment only.

A number of bitches have been mated and several litters were due during the autumn, so any persons interested in securing an Adel puppy should make early application to Miss Buckley.

MRS. SMITH purchased a Chow in the early days of the war as a pet, but was so captivated by the breed that it now occupies a major part in her interests and she has become one of our most enthusiastic exhibitors, rarely missing a ch. show.

The self-red, Brutus of Ho-Ping, was her first-love. Born April 17, 1941, by Coronag of Ho-Ping (son of Ch. Rochow Adjutant) ex Lucinda of Ho-Ping, he won his entry in the K.C.S.B. early in the year (382 AE), but the crowning achievement of his show career was won at Blackpool ch. show, under Mr. J. W. Marples, when he took the c.c. and was best of breed. He had already been best in show and many times best of breed at local and specialist events in the Midlands. Others who have elevated him in the prize-lists have been Messrs. J. F. Blake, W. G. Browning, A. Demaine, D. D. Stobart, C. Harrison, J. Hartley-Baileff, G. Kay, E. Lumley, J. H. Shaw, James Garrow, P. Whitaker,

BRUTUS OF HO-PING

Mons. R. Bechet, Mesdames Ingleton, Needham and Geary, and Miss Nichols and Miss Elam. He is at stud to approved bitches by appointment.

Liu Cho of Hanoi, a home-bred black, born Nov. 17, 1944, is by Brutus ex Lady Precious Stream of Weymere. Some prefer him to his sire. He is well balanced and has the all-too-rare low double hock, and has won under Messrs. G. Oliver, J. B. Hudson, R. H. Voss, T. E. Wilson, H. H. Wilson, James Garrow, P. Whitaker, G. Kay, J. W. Marples, and Mons. R. Eechet. A proved sire, he is at stud to approved bitches.

Of the bitches, pride of place must be given to Rosanne of Ho-Ping, a red, by Pe T'sing of Ho-Ping (son of Ransom of Padua) ex Estelle of Ho-Ping. She has won under Mrs. Hewitt Pitt, Mr. P. Whitaker, Mr. J. Hartley-Baileff, and recently under myself at Leicester ch. show.

Kao Ma of Hanoi is by Brutus of Ho-Ping ex Rosanne of Ho-Ping, and though barely a year old, has already won under such judges as Mrs. M. L. Bird, Mrs. Geary, and Mr. James Garrow. Her litter-sister, Kezia of Hanoi, has also been prominent in the awards, winning under Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Clemerson, Mrs. Geary, Mr. P. Whitaker, and Mr. James Garrow. Kwe-Ming of Hanoi, by the late Tide of Redstone ex Princess Chanda Fu, has won under Mrs. P. Needham, Miss Brackenbury, and Mr. C. Harrison.

Of the remaining bitches, mention must be made of the deep self-red, Princess Chanda Fu, g.daughter of the c.c. winning red, Layo Wu, and the blue, Lady Precious Stream of Weymere, by Blue Chung ex Blue Gur-lee. The former, besides possessing excellent pigmentation, carries bloodlines which are all too rare to-day, and is an excellent brood; whilst the latter has more than proved her worth in this respect. Pao-Yu of Hanoi, by Brutus ex Lady Precious Stream of Weymere, and Geraldine and Susan of Hanoi, both by Brutus ex Princess Chanda Fu, complete the team.

Puppies are usually for sale, and inquiries for these and studs will be courteously and promptly dealt with by Mrs. Smith personally. A. O. GRINDEY.

DEPICTED here is the young blue dog, Lama of Adel, by Minos of Adel, son of Ch. Peach of Silverway) ex the well known dam of so many winners, Can-Do of Shuswap. With massive bone, excellent head and a really good good colour, he has that other quality so desirable in a sire, namely masculinity, and should prove a tremendous asset in the drive to popularise this colour in Chows. Our photo, taken when he was only six months old, speaks for itself. His show record, so far, has been most encouraging—firsts under Messrs. Warner Hill, W. Burrows, C. Jackson and Mrs. Ingleton, who made him best puppy at Gt. Yarmouth. He was amongst the prize winners at Cambridge ch. show under J. W. H. Beynon in a representative quality entry. A proved sire, he is placed at stud to a few approved bitches.

BARWICK Chow Chows

Owner: Miss C. E. COLLETT, Barwick, 9, Middle Green Rd, Slough, Bucks.

Telephone: Slough 21176

THE Barwick kennel is the first to achieve the distinction of having bred two champions in the breed during the post-war period.

Ch. Anthea of Barwick, by Ch. Choonam Mong Yen ex Brenda of Barwick, was best in show at the first post-war open show (Midland Chow Chow Club, Birmingham, Dec., 1945), in an all-time record entry for the breed of 539, under Mrs. M. L. Cliff and Mr. J. Hurst. Her first c.c. was won at the Chow Chow Club's ch. show, London, Nov., 1946, under Mr. J. Hurst, and on this occasion she was again best in show, beating her half-brother, Ch. Viking of Barwick, also bred by Miss Collett. Her second c.c. was gained at Olympia, July, 1947, under Mr. Jos. Hartley-Baileff, and I had the pleasure of awarding her her third c.c. at Leicester in August, 1947. She has twice been reserve for the c.c.—at the Chinese Chow Club's ch. show, London, 1947, under Mrs. I. M. Grice-Hutchinson, and at the Five Breeds ch. show, London, under Mr. Ed. Lumley.

I cannot do better than quote what I wrote of her on the occasion upon which she gained her title: "... a most typical Chow, beautifully built, perfect front, hocks and feet, excellent head and expression, correct action, right up on her toes."

Quality, however, is not limited to the one exhibit. Miss Collett can produce a stud team to suit the most fastidious, and the excellence of their breeding is worthy of special note.

CH. ANTHEA OF BARWICK

Choonam Hu Chung, bought at the dispersal of the world-famed Choonam kennel, is typical of the quality which the late Mrs. Mannoch produced with such amazing regularity. He is by Ch. Choonam Fank Yin ex Ch. Choonam Kwong Che (litter-sister of Ch. Choonam Mong Yen and Choonam Hing Yong, sire of Ch. Peach of Silverway), and none could wish for better breeding.

Benjamin of Barwick, litter-brother of Brenda (dam of the two Barwick champions), is a grandson of Rochow Ambrose. Typhoon of Barwick is by Choonam Hu Chung ex Brenda of Barwick. Ling Wu of Adel, by Ch. Choonam Mong Yen ex Chand Bi Bi of Adel, combines some most valuable bloodlines—the older and newer Choonam lines with Adjutant and Akbar blood; whilst Zingapore of Barwick is by the late Solomon of Barwick ex Vernita of Barwick (litter-sister to Ch. Viking of B.). All are reds.

The bitches are an equally strong team. Jo-anna of Barwick (litter-sister to Ch. Anthea), Brenda of Barwick (dam of Ch. Anthea and Ch. Viking), Vernita of Barwick (by Rochow Trigger ex Brenda of Barwick, and litter-sister to Ch. Viking), Osmanda of Barwick, by Solomon of B. ex Vernita of B., and Rosalind of Barwick, litter-sister to Brenda of B.

Puppies are occasionally for sale, and inquiries for these and studs will be courteously dealt with.

MRS. HALL'S kennel has sprung into prominence of recent years, but the foundation was laid on secure lines principally on stock from the famous Choonam kennel. The consequence is that once it got going it has rapidly achieved the limelight. Mrs. Hall is keenness itself and a regular exhibitor at ch., breed and variety shows, where her kindness and genuineness have won her many friends.

Choonam Lung Yen, born August 25, 1945 by Ch. Choonam Mong Yen ex Wupei Hu Nan has over 250 awards, including 60 firsts and 40 cups, to his credit. He is siring grand puppies, and amongst the pick of his "get" is the shaded red Li Che of Treebrigg, born Sept. 18, 1945, out of Choonam Li Weng, who won the c.c. at Cardiff in Sept., 1946, and was reserve for the green star at the Dublin show on St. Patrick's Day, 1947. During her puppyhood she was several times best puppy in show, and amongst her more recent wins have been those at the E.E.L.K.S. ch. show at Peterborough, where she was second in Limit and third in Open, and at the Croydon ch. show at Olympia.

Another grand youngster of the right type is the red dog, Lung

Kwong of Treebrigg, of the same breeding as Li Che, but out of a later litter (August 31, 1946), who took a first at his first English ch.

show at Birmingham, in March, 1947, and followed it up by taking awards at the ch. shows at Leeds (N.C.C.C. Club) Peterborough, Blackpool, Croydon (Olympia), and Cambridge. He was in the awards at Dublin ch. show.

A bitch, Li Weng of Treebrigg, out of the same litter as Lung Kwong, was a prize winner at Leeds ch. show too.

Another good stud dog is Choonam Tung Lim, 1st prize winner and siring grand puppies, one of which has gone to Switzerland. A very promising youngster is Yon Si of Treebrigg, by Ch. Sabu ex Susanne of Barwick, who won three firsts at the Midland Chow Club show at Sunderland, awards at Leicester ch. show, and three firsts at Cardiff ch. show, where he had the honour of going into the ring as an unbeaten dog. Other puppies include bitches by Donwell Desco, Sitruc Son of Smut and Ting Wu of Adel. Also another grand litter from Choonam Li Weng, by Choonam Lung Yen, and one from Li Che of Treebrigg, by Yu Chong Chu of T'Saigon.

The bitches are soundly bred from first rate Choonam stock, and puppies are occasionally for sale. A. O. G.
