

1932 National Specialty won by Ch. Yang Fu Tang

CH. YANG FU TANG
1932 CHOW NATIONAL BEST OF BREED

For the time being this is a holding area for the images I will be writing an article about. CLICK TO READ MORE ABOUT

YANG FU TANG HERE

A rare peek into the benching area at the Chow National Specialty

Circa 1932, The Chow Club of America held it's 12th Annual Specialty Show at the Waldorf Astoria. The Best of Breed winner that year was the magnificent Ch. Yang Fu Tang, who claimed victory over an entry of 167 Chows.

PRIZE-WINNERS

Mrs. Ralph L. Woerner photographed at the Chow Chow Club's annual dog show now in progress at New York, with four dogs, all prize-winners, owned by Harry P. Ottinger, of Mignon, Pa.