Chow Chow Hutte in Oberstdorf Germany

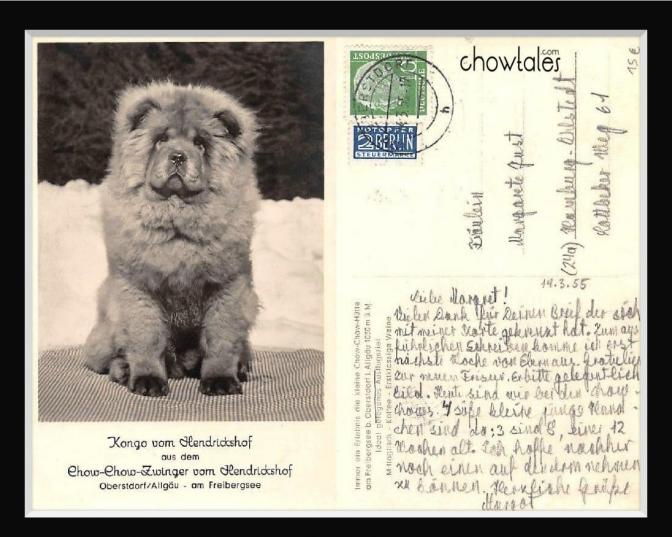

These postcards in my personal collection are all from the Chow Chow Hutte located in Oberstdorf Germany in what looks to be in a very sweet location in the Austrian mountains. All I have are postcards with dates ranging between 1954 and 1970 so this beautiful lodge could have been in business longer. I would love to hear more from any of my readers who may have more information. I'm fascinated with this breathtaking setting for chows and people alike. I am seeing in my Google translations references to the kennel name being Vom Hendrickshof. Also the Temple of Chows came up from one of the postcard descriptions
