

GRETI THEIMER – GERMAN ACTRESS

To find 3 unique photos of a celebrity with their chows is a rarity, and the example of Gretl Theimer even more of a special find, as there is little information on this actress available and few photos to choose from. Note the dog in the first 2 images may possibly be the same chow...puppy above and adult below.

©WORLDSHOW.COM ARCHIVES - PRIVATE COLLECTION

GRETI THEIMER 1930'S
GERMAN ACTRESS

Gretl Theimer was educated as a ballet dancer and danced in the children's ballet of the State Opera in Vienna. Subsequently she made herself a name by singing in operetta's on Austrian and German stages.

She was in the original movie THE TRAPP FAMILY (see video below) which led to the making of THE SOUND OF MUSIC years later.

©WORLDSHOWCOM ARCHIVES - PRIVATE COLLECTION

GRETI THEIMER 1930'S
GERMAN ACTRESS

This photo is so beautiful and the chow is certainly different than the top two images

GRETI THEIMER 1930's German Actress
©Sandra Miller Collection

Above is another outstanding image from an antique postcard in my collection showing what I believe to be one of the first 2 chows

The music film "Zwei Herzen in Dreivierteltakt" (1930) turned her into a movie star. The title song was a that movie was a great succes as well. During the thirties she made many succesfull movies, but after "Falstaff in Wien" (1940) she disappeared from the movies. From 1952 onwards she had small parts in several movies.

BELOW SEE A SHORT CLIP FROM THE PREDECESSOR TO THE SOUND OF MUSIC 'DER TRAPP FAMILIE'