

James Durden 'Betty and Chow' Painting

Thank you for sharing -Hover images for Pinterest

13

SHARES

FACEBOOKTWITTER

"Betty and Chow" British artist James Durden – 1878–1964
Keswick Museum and Art Gallery; Supplied by The Public Catalogue Foundation

This stunning painting by James Durden was hard to find information about when it was actually painted. It was bequeathed by James Durden in my birth year 1958, so could have been painted any time before that. Note the long and productive career this artist had.

Betty and Chow, James Durden (1878–1964),
Keswick Museum and Art Gallery

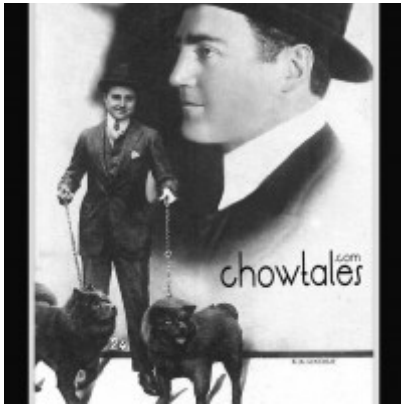

© the copyright holder
photo credit: Keswick Museum and Art Gallery

Title	Betty and Chow
Artist(s)	James Durden (1878–1964)
Collection	Keswick Museum and Art Gallery
Medium and Support	oil on canvas
Size	169 x 139 cm
Location	Keswick Museum and Art Gallery
Acquisition method	bequeathed by James Durden, 1958
Accession number	KESMG:3116
Private loan	No
Description	James Durden was a landscape and portrait painter, and was born in Manchester. For several years he lived in Whitehaven and Keswick in Cumbria.

SOURCE: <http://www.thepcf.org.uk>

More archived posts you might enjoy:

BREED PIONEER - The GREENACRE KENNELS of Actor-Dir...

ONE SPOT FLEA KILLER advertisement in Elridge Maryland. Circa 1930-40's
One Spot Flea Killer-World's largest
Chow doghouse

James Durden 'Betty and Chow' Painting

ARTICLE -1925 The New Chow
Standard -AKC Gazette -...

1918 Pictorial Review - Chow puppy
on a magazine c...