THE RED CARPET IS PAVED WITH CHOW PAWPRINTS

At the April 2017 Chow Chow Club Inc. National Specialty in Chicago which just finished last week, the theme was "A Red Carpet Affair". To celebrate the many celebrities that have owned and loved chows throughout the Golden Years of Hollywood and beyond, I offered my personal collection of Celebrities and their chows, to be displayed at the show for all to enjoy. Below are the same 50 photos with annotation, displayed in an 8 minute video so those who were not at the show can see them as well. Thank you Brian Hooper for displaying the images so beautifully and to Sheree Chan for the photo of a section of the display (above). More photos to come soon!
