Circa 1902 - This incredible photograph comes from England and was in beautiful condition for something so old.

The sepia version I love as much as the black and white restoration I did, but do like seeing the details in the faces etc. Look at those perfect little baby toes and the chow looks as though the feet had been trimmed.

RESTORATION - 1902 Baby with Chow on fur rug

Circa 1902 Beautiful baby with a gorgeous young Chow. This incredible photograph comes from England and is in beautiful condition for something so old. The sepia version I love as much as the black and white restoration I did, but I do like seeing the details in the faces etc. in the black and white. Look at those perfect little baby toes and the chow looks as though the feet had been trimmed.

This photo has it all! For sure it will be included in my vintage chow photo book when I get around to that project! This is a real treasure I am thrilled to have in my collection.
