

1926

MULFRA BETTY.

1926

MULFRA RADIANT.

MRS. F. SPARROW & HER FAMOUS CHOW CHOWS

at 86, Stroud Green Road, Finsbury Park, London, N.1.

KOWA SE-KE.

KOWA SE-KE, the subject of our illustration, was bred by its popular owner, M. Sparrow, and claims as its sire, Long Acre Nephos ex Kowa Su-Chi. He is the winner of two Championship Certificates and is a beautiful black, with a nice scowl and expression with small and well-placed ears, plenty of bone, with a beautiful coat and stands on four good feet, in fact, he can be properly described as a typical chow right through. He has sired a large number of winning puppies, and as a St. Force is very well known. Particulars of his pedigree and any other information will willingly be supplied by Mrs. Sparrow.

F. B. FOWLER.

1926-27

Miss Marjorie Medcalf's Famous Chows, At Stornoway Kennels, Ramsden Heath, Essex.

1927

CHU KEA OF STORNOWAY.

IF the famous Stornoway Chows were not so luxuriously happy in their own lovely home—which to them, no doubt, is far above the rubies of the show ring,—they would have a genuine grievance against their owner this year; in a season in which Stornoway quality has far surpassed even its previous highest level, Miss Medcalf has been so much abroad that her Chows have been seldom in the show ring, and so much of the publicity, begetter of the prominence that is their due, has been temporarily denied them. That, however, does not alter the fact of their magnificence—it has only postponed the fruits of it.

But the occasional opportunity has not been missed by such merit as one meets in the hugely promising young dog, CHU KEA OF STORNOWAY, by Long Acre Pharos ex Dahlia of Stornoway; coming out at the Kensington Championship Show in the spring, he took